National Bank Circulation.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The bill introduced by Senator Bowen changing the basis of bank circulation provides for the retirement of all-national bank notes and the substitution of United States notes on a basis of silver and gold, and United States bonds to be deposited in the United States Treasury, one-third of each. The banks are to receive from the Treasury United States notes for circulation to an amount 30 per cent. greater than the par value of the se-curity thus deposited, and a statutory lien is created on the general assets of the bank as additional security. The free coinage of silver is also provided for, and many changes are proposed in existing laws concerning national banks, including a right on the part of the banks to withdraw one-third in bonds upon substituting a like amount in gold and silver, in equal propor-tions. The tax on circulation is to be placed in the United States Treasury as a general safety fund for use in cases of failing banks.

THE New York Post, in its cotton review, says: Future deliveries opened 3-100c lower, recovered 1-100 to 2-100c and then lost 8 to 1-206, from the highest point of the day. Here, since Tuesday, the de-mand for wheat has been slow, and corn has been firm. At to-day's market wheat was in quiet request, and prices were unchanged. Trade in corn was limited. Flour was more active. Peas were unchanged. Beans were dearer.

Richmond, Va. Is THERE no bottom to the cotton market? is the question most frequently asked on 'Change just now. Since Monday there has been a decline of 3-16c here, ic in New York, ic in New Orleans and id in Liverpool, the price of cotton in that market now being 4 13-16d, the lowest price reached since 1848, when it touched reached since 1848, when it touched 44d; the lowest price since the war was December 14, 1878, when it was 44d. It is feared that it may decline still lower before it reacts. Much will depend upon the ability of the South to withhold sales in the present depressed condition of the market. Memphia is doing her share in holding up the market, but is not backed up by a similar policy at other South-ern markets. Some of our local cotton men doubt the wisdom of the policy of refusing to meet the market, and argue that it sends orders to New Orleans that ought to come here. The future alone can determine whether the policy that now obtains is the wiser one, but should it prove not so our cotton factors will at least have the satisfaction of feeling that they have made a manly fight in the interests of the planters.

THE GREAT CHURCH TRIAL

Dr. Daniel's Masterly Effort in Reply -Intense Excitement Over the Matter.

ISPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.! LOUISVILLE, Kv., February 19.—The Rev. T. E. Converse continued his demurrer to the indictment on the charges against him at the presbytery trial this morning. He reiterated his assertion that they were vague and in-definite, and said they should be dis-missed because there was a lack of anything which would substantially show a crime had been committed; that the prosecutors had not shown they were deeply interested in the result, and that the spirit in which the charges were made was litigious and not in keeping with the spirit of the

DR. DANIEL'S RESPONSE was a masterly effort. He said if the defendants will allow this indictment, with its twenty-five specifications, to go before the church with an affidavit that it is so indefinite that they cannot say whether they are guilty or not, then he would drop the prosecution immediately. Continuing, Dr. Daniel said it was the first time in the history of a church trial that a defendant had demurred to an indictment, so far as he had heard. The charge was spe-cific, that of falsehood—and was sub-Converses were not proper persons to throw a barrier in the way of the prose-cution; the best thing they could do would be to plead not guilty and let the trial go on.

DR. MORRISON moved that Converse's objections to indictment be overruled, and this motion was carried.

THE CONVERSES were then allowed to plead guilty or not guilty, and amid intense excitement they plead not guilty under certain conditions. It was then discovered that an important point in the proceedings had been overlooked, and its whole action of the afternoon was declared void, and at the close of the day's session the matter reverted to the motion of Morrison to overrule the demurrer.

AT THE NIGHT SESSION the Messrs. Converse filed their written answer, which was as follows:

We are ready to put in our answer.
We wish to say first that we are not at all insensible to the taunts put on us for our delay; in delaying we sought the welfare of the church. We be-lieved that in the indictment there is such rubbish as will delay the trial. We tried to remove that rubbish. We now plead trial. We tried to remove that rubbish. We now plead with the impossibility of any certainty of calling the right witnesses. In answer to the charge and specifications the defencants would remind the presbytery that we are not called to account by the court, but we have called for the trial and investigation of the assertions which have been made upon ourselves through the secular press. We except than yesterday. we do not hereby waive any right belonging to us or any right to insist upon a rectification of any error that the court may have committed. We plead to the charge, not guilty, and most indignantly and emphati-cally deny anything that reflects on our truthfulness and Christian char-

T. E. CONVERSE. F. B. CONVERSE.

It was then announced that the witnesses were not present, and after some wrangling a motion to postpone the trial until June 15th was made and adopted.

A commission was appointed, sisting of the Rev. Drs. T. D. Wither-spoon, C. R. Hemphill and J. J. Cooke, and Elders T. W. Bullitt and J. Garrett, to take testimony and depositions and present them to presbytery when it meets for trial June 15th.

HUMBOLDY, TENN.

Insurance Men Adjusting the Losses Sustained by the Recent Fire.

ISPECIAL TO THE APPEAL. Humboldt, Tenn., February 19.— The adjusters for the various insurance companies losing in the recent fire have been here this week settling with beneficiaries. The principal com-panies are the North American, the Underwriters' and the Continental. The total loss will reach near $20,000, while the insurance is about $12,000. Preparations are being made to rebuild immediately on the site of the burned block, which was one of the best and the finest in the town.

The public schools are now in operation and the attendance is quite full, about 350. The city authorities have organized a Board of Education under an act of the last Legislature and purchased a two-story brick, well adapted for the purpose, erected at a cost of $13,000. The recently announced candidacy of the Hon. W. I. McFarland of this place for Congress is meeting with a flat-tering approval over the whole district. He is in the front rank of the West Tennessee bar and is an experienced legislator. Being a Democrat in fact as well as in party alliance, he has always been a favorite with the masses. He is a true man, and of that sturdy, upright character that commands confidence and respect as well as admiration. An orator of no mean repute he will be effective on the stump. He goes into the canvass untrammeled by the embarrassing issues that beset his them as a sarrifice. He was captured two opponents—an advantage that puts him at the start the leader in the admits his guilt. He is irresponsible.

Apaches Who Want to Become

To Governor Ross they expressed a desire to abandon their present reservation life and own their lands in severalty for the purposes of farming and raising stock like white people. The Governor asked them if they were willing to give up their contributions they received from the government for their support, and told them that would be necessary if the government for their support, and told them that would be necessary if they went to farming. They replied that they were, and that many of the tribe felt the same way, as they saw nothing but ultimate extermination in does his task well. THE CONTENT OVER THE POST-MANTERSHIP,

A Serious Difficulty Marrow's Averted-The City Annoyed by Thieves.

ISPECIAL TO THE APPEAL! HELENA, ARK., February 19-Owing to the expiration of our present post-master's term, his successor is the all-absorbing topic of the day. Until quite recently it seemed to be gen-erally conceded that Mr. H.P. Grant would get the position, Col. Allen J. Polk and Mr. T. C. Hindman being the other applicants. Quite a commo-tion was created by Mr. Hindman tele-graphing a friend in Washington that the petition of Mr. Grant cantained the signatures of the Republicans and to the expiration of our present postthe signatures of the Republicans and colored voters, and that a number of the bona fide Democratic signatures were obtained through misrepresenta-tion. A friend of Mr. Gant's in Washington, believing that the telegram of Mr. Hindman was calculated to injure his interests, telegraphed Mr. Grant that such a telegram had been received. Mr. Grant went to Mr. Hindman for explanations, and was confronted with the assurance that he had sent such a telegram and was prepared to prove the contents. A serious difficulty was prevented by bystanders. Mr. Hindman then went to work and secured the signatures of quite a number of gentlemen who had signed both petitions, Hadman's first, to the effect that they signed Mr. Grant's petition with the understanding that is was for him for second choice, and that they did not know the petition's caption contained a clause reverting previous signatures to other petitions. This, with other pa-pers, has been forwarded to Washing-ton, and there the case rests. Col. Al-len J. Polk had no part in the controversy, and many who were not friendly to him before now express themselves favorably toward him. Mr. F. G. Millette of Wichita, Kas., and Mrs. Lela Wooton, the accom-plished daughter of Mr. John P. Moore, were married yesterday. Mr. Millette is a wide-awake, progressive young business man, and is to be con-gratulated upon his good fortune. The river rose in the last twenty-four hours eighteen inches, and is steadily rising.

Quite a number of petty thefts are nightly being committed in all portions of the town.

THE CRISIS PASSED. Hopes for Mr. Watterson's Speedy Becovery.

LOUISVILLE, KY., February 19.—Mr. Watterson continued better all during the day. At 6 o'clock his temperature was reduced to 98½°, pulse 94. His friends and the nurse feel that another, and probably the last, crisis is passed, and hope for his speedy restoration to health. The physicians are hardly as sanguine, but are very hopeful of ultimate complete recovery.
At midnight Mr. Watte wa's condition was more favorable than in ten days, and strong hopes are entertained for his recovery. He took solid-food to-night for the first time in a week.

BIRMINGHAN, ALA.

Suicide of a Well-Known Business Man.

SPECIAL TO THE APPRAL.

Birmingham, Ala., February 19.— About 9 o'clock yesterday morning Joseph H. Nichols, a well-known sales sgent for powder and dynamit; here, left his office in the Opera-house block right in the heart of the city and went to his room on the third floor same block. He had been drinking the day before, but then seemed in good enough spirits. He did not re-turn in the afternoon and his partner sent a boy to the room for him. The boy getting no response to his reprat-ed knocks, looked through the transom and saw him sitting in chair. He was still there this morning and his friends concluded that something must be wrong, so they broke the door open, and Mr. Nichols was found to be dead, a pistol ball in his head just above the left ear having done the work. The pistol lay on the floor and on the table a piece of paper on which was written: "Bury me in Birmingham." The deed was no doubt done yesterday, but no one had any intimation of it till to-day. Nichols was forty-eight years old and a widower. He came here from New Orleans about four years ago, and leaves a five-year-old con at Algiers, across the river from New Orleans. He was a quiet, gentlemanly man, with no especial fault, barring occa-sional sprees. No one seems to understand why he killed himself. A Crary Negro's Horrible Crime. SAVANNAH, February 19 .- The dead bodies of two unknown negro boys, eight and ten years of sge, were found tied to the foot of a sapling in the woods aix miles from the city this morning. They had been gagged, their mouths having been rammed full of clay and leaves. Their arms and legs were tied tog ther and were fa tened to the sapling by a rope around their necks. There were no marks of vicinose on the bodies. They are thought to be brothers. John Graham, a crasy negro living near the spot is the supposed murderer. He is insane on re-ligion, and it is believed he killed

INCREASING ACTIVITY AT WEST-ERN MERCANTILE CENTERS,

With a Corresponding Decrease at the Larger Atlantic Seaboard Cities.

New York, February 19.-Special telegrams to Bradstree's present some changes of detail as to the condition of general trade, yet the situation as a whole is not decidedly different from that previously reported. At Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, Indianapolis, Memphis and Kansas City the movement of merchandise has been active and is increasing. This is true to some extent also at Cincinnati. At St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Davenport business is fair, and the prospects point to a

GOOD SPRING TRADE. The chief improvement at the cities The chief insprovement at the cities first named appears to have been in dry goods. More favorable weather and the regularity of transportation are largely responsible for it. On the other hand, the distribution of staples from the larger Atlantic scaboard cities has been smaller and is plainly disappointing. At Böston the situation makes observers there less hopeful. Dry goods are in lighter demand, and there is a tendency to mark up prices, owing to labor troubles and prices, owing to labor troubles and higher wages, and to make delivery contracts conditional on no labor troubles. There is some difficulty in maintaining the late advance in woolen fabrics. Print cloths are dull and lower, 6-is being 3|c less 1 per cent. per yard. WOOL

Wool is less buoyant, owing to the higher wages paid operatives. Im-ports have depressed the market, and while prices are unchanged, doubt has replaced confidence. At Philadelphia business has not equaled ex-pectations, and at Baltimore the movement of goods South and West does not improve. COAL

There has been no gain in anthracite coal prices, notwithstanding the much talked of coal road combination, and quotations are from 15c to 25c lower per ton than at a like date last year. There is no visible change in iron or steel in the direction of improvement, notwithstanding expecta-tions at various centers of higher prices soon. Petroleum has been higher, and exports have increased. The late speculative combination to force a decline, has apparently accomplished its purpose.

GRAIN. There is no special change in the wheat market, Prices declined dur-ing the early part of the week, but have reacted since on firmer foreign eables, improved exports and reports of increased interior milling demand. Indian corn is weaker and lower since the attempt to corner the Febru-ary option, and hog products are easier as well. Cotton is heavy and lower, spots closing to off as compared with the close one week ago. THE INDUSTRIAL SITUATION is no less involved, the frequency of strikes and boycotts to enforce the demands of organized employes being conspicuous and more numerous than Fallares for the Week. New York, February 19.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to R. G. Dun & Co., number for the United States 251, and for Canada thirty-five, or a total of 236, as compared with 275 last week, and 287 the week previous. The business cas-matties in the Southern States and in Canada are still above the average.
